creating sigils doesn't have to be difficult sigils are a versatile tool for witches or anyone on a magickal path they can be used in your spellbook on your altar candles for protection and anything else you can think of but it seems so difficult to create them at least it was for me in my practice that is why i designed this book which fits in a standard size traveler's notebook it will guide you through the process of creating a sigil with the help of two tables one for assigning each letter a number and one for creating the actual sigil this book follows a five step process to create a sigil first you write your intention in the second step cross out every vowel and every repeating letters in the third step you exchange the letters into the numbers from the table in the book in the fourth step you connect the number in the numbers table to create your sigil s basic design in the last step you decorate the sigil and change it the way you like it there is no right or wrong way to draw it the magic in the sigil comes from you this book fits in a traveler s notebook however please note that this is not the typical refill booklet with thread stitching but a small bound book measuring 4 3 x 8 2 in product details 60 pages with the five steps of creating a sigil using tables handy format 4 33 x 8 26 in shiny durable and flexible cover also looks good on its own great gift for all fans of sigils and magick witchcraft
